Rose & Crown Maldon

This has long been a fixture on Maldon's main shopping street. Flanked by several grade II listed properties, the building is said to be 'early 16th century', with 'alterations to its front in the 18th and 19th century'. It is recorded as The Rose and Crown in the list of Maldon inns included in some of the earliest local trade directories, published in the 1780s. At that time, its licensee was Thomas King.
